BENNETT'S

GREEN TRADING STAMPS EVERY TIME

After 45 years on Farnam Street Mr. Sam'l Burns, the western king of Chinadom, retires from business and sells his gigantic stock to the Bennett Company. It's probably the most historical china stock in America

This immense western birthplace of crockery life is known from ocean to ocean. Mr. Burns was a regular visitor to all the great potteries of Europe and America. What he didn't get control of was something his expert eye and mind didn't care to bother with. He introduced the products of Europe and the Orient to the great West, and there isn't an inhabitant between the Missouri and the Rockies but has visited Sam'l Burns' crockery house on Farnam street, Omaha. He enters on a well-earned retirement and closes out a $30,000 stock to us for cash. Even with our gigantic facilities—the greatest store space west of the Mississippi—we cannot handle this stock in any other way than by sections. Monday morning the first section will be put on sale

AT YOUR OWN PRICE

Libby Cut Glass Bowls, Sugars and Creams, Footed Jellies, Covered Bon Bons, Pickle Trays, Celery Trays, etc. Sever's Fancy Vases, Royal Doulton, Royal Worcester and Royal Bonn China.

HUNGARIAN AND BAVARIAN BRIC-A-BRAC

Sam'l Burns, being a connoisseur and art critic, picked up thousands of odd pieces in the quaint pottery cities of Europe and Asia. These pieces are absolutely unmatched and we offer them for a song.

JARDINIERES—All sizes, shapes and colors—pots and pedestals at one-third Burns' prices—$5 down to 12c

SOUP SETS—One dozen plates with soup tureens—Burns' price was $12—Monday sacrificed for $4

DINNER SETS

Choicest, Rarest, Most Interesting Display You Ever Threw Your Eye Over

French China Dinnerware—decorations and shapes most rare—some slightly imperfect—many sets that will never be reproduced again.

$125 Burns Sets for $50.00 $39 Burns Sets for $17.00
$85 Burns Sets for 27.50 English Porcelain—Burns' mark $15, Monday at 7.50
$45 Burns Sets for 22.50 Burns' mark $14, Monday at Bennett's for 6.50
And so on ad lib.

The foregoing is merely a little index of almost $5,000 worth of Burns' stock that will be closed out first sales day—Monday—representing little over one tenth the entire purchase of $50,000. Every day a fresh section will be produced. It means that our salespeople and workers will be kept rattling crockery night and day to keep up with this enormous sales task of clearing out the stock in the shortest possible space of time.

HOTEL WARE

Numerous inquiries have been made as to when this interesting section will be placed on sale. Impossible at the moment to tell. Will be duly announced in the advertising columns of this newspaper.
